

Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA)

2016 Annual Report

PREA Background:

The Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) was signed into Federal law in 2003 by President George W. Bush. It was created to address the problem of sexual misconduct in all confinement facilities. In 2012, the U.S. Department of Justice released national PREA standards to prevent, detect, and respond to sexual abuse and sexual harassment in confinement facilities. The Act requires all federal, state, and local corrections agencies to have a zero-tolerance policy regarding rape in prisons, jails, police lock-ups, and community confinement facilities.

The Hamilton County Sheriff's Office and its Jail has a zero-tolerance policy towards sexual misconduct of any kind within its facility. The Hamilton County Jail is in compliance with all federal and state laws as they pertain to PREA, sexual violence, and sexual misconduct.

Definitions:

- Substantiated – A substantiated allegation means an allegation that was investigated and determined to have occurred.
- Unsubstantiated – An unsubstantiated allegation means an allegation that was investigated and the investigation produced insufficient evidence to make a final determination as to whether or not the event occurred.
- Unfounded – An unfounded allegation means an allegation that was investigated and determined not to have occurred.

Annual report

Since the beginning of 2015, the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office has undertaken the responsibility of becoming 100% compliant under all PREA rules and guidelines. PREA Coordinator's have been designated and multiple policies were written. A training curriculum was developed and our Staff was trained in PREA policies and procedures. Every person booked into the Hamilton County Jail is given information on PREA in multiple formats, including how to report incidents. The public is also made aware of our policies through posters and a video presentation. Current policies as well as the physical layout of the jail were considered and some changes were made in order to become PREA compliant.

The following information is provided in accordance with the PREA Standards 115.287, 115.288, and 115.289
