

The Hamilton County Sheriff's Office has received a lot of questions about the new fireworks legislation. Attached to this is the new law. We are aware there is some confusion about the law and after you read the law it should clear up that confusion. Hamilton County has opted to go along with the new law and to see how the first year goes before they decide to take further action.

Cities in Hamilton County have also been busy deciding if they should allow fireworks in their areas. If you have questions about your town place a call to your city hall and they will be able to help you.

The Hamilton County Sheriff's Office encourages citizens if they decide to use firework to follow the law and to be safe. Citizens we ask you to be considerate of other people if you decide to use fireworks.